Description: Calgary Christian School volleyball camps wants to help you to become prepared technically to become the best volleyball player you can be in the coming school year. The camp will be run primarily by Varsity volleyball players who wish to pass on their knowledge and love of the game to your children while having fun and improving volleyball skills. We will work on the basic skills of passing, hitting, serving, and team play, along with learning about character development and sportsmanship. This camp will help to prepare your child for your upcoming school season.
