Calgary Christian School (CCS) was founded more than 50 years ago as Calgary's first faith-based, independent Christian school. From modest beginnings with 50 students in a church basement, CCS has grown into a dynamic community of faith occupying a 10-acre campus that serves approximately 820 students, grades K – 12 in 2015-2016. In 2008, CCS joined Palliser Regional Schools as an alternative Christian public school. Its mission and vision continue to be promoted and governed by the 9-member Board of the Calgary Society for Christian Education. Principals at CCS work in harmony with CSCE's Executive Director who represents the Society's interests and resources.
